PROCEEDINGS AT DOCKET CALL

THE CLERK: Ingram?

MR. ROSENBERG: Good morning, Your Honor. That is set for a trial today with Mr. Broccoletti, a two-hour-long trial.

THE COURT: Got this letter from Mr. Traylor.

MR. ROSENBERG: Yes, Your Honor. That letter I anticipate will need to be taken up before.

THE COURT: Is Mr. Traylor here?

MR. ROSENBERG: He is, Your Honor.

MR. TRAYLOR: I am.

THE COURT: You're Mr. Traylor?

MR. TRAYLOR: I am.

THE COURT: Okay. So have you had an opportunity -- I mean, he's your victim, I gather from the letter.

MR. ROSENBLUM: Yes, Your Honor. I would answer, I guess, the question you're going to ask next.

THE COURT: So are you going to make the motion that he's asking the Court to consider?

1 MR. ROSENBLUM: Your Honor, I am just
2 asking for -- it appears that Mr. Traylor would
3 like to be heard by the Court. That letter was
4 filed, I believe, at either 10 or 20 to five p.m.
5 on Friday. I haven't had a chance to speak to 6 Mr. Traylor. And at this point I'm of the 7 opinion that it's --

8 THE COURT: Well, hang on. Before you
9 express an opinion, if you haven't talked to him,
10 why don't you talk to him. So I'm going to drop
11 this matter down and give you an opportunity to 12 consult with Mr. Traylor.

13 Mr. Traylor, you're a lawyer in -- what
14 jurisdiction do you practice in, sir?

15 MR. TRAYLOR: Central Virginia.

16 THE COURT: Central Virginia.

17 MR. TRAYLOR: Yes, ma'am.

18 THE COURT: So you know that it's
19 not -- it's not strictly kosher for the Court to
20 entertain a motion that's presented by a nonparty
21 to the case, but, of course, you are at interest
22 in the case.

23 And I'm very willing to hear from you,
24 but if it's a motion nobody else agrees on, I'm 25 not exactly sure what posture that puts us in,

1 but why don't you and Mr. Rosenberg take this
2 opportunity to speak to one another.

3 MR. TRAYLOR: I understand, Your Honor.
4 Thank you.

5 THE COURT: All right. Okay.
