Re: My Client: Leona Murphy, Administrator of the Estate of Quandrell Williams, deceased
Date of Incident: October 15, 2023
Date of Death: October 25, 2023
O/File No.: 23970-00001

Dear All:

Pursuant to Virginia Code §§ 15.2-209 and 8.01-195.6, please allow this letter to act as notice of intent to seek damages against the City of Newport News Emergency Medical Services employees and/or agents and the Newport News Police Department's employees and/or agents on account of their actions on October 15, 2023 on or near 1024 Garden Drive Newport News, Virginia 23607 around 5:39 a.m.

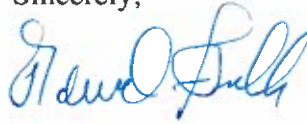

The actions of Newport News Emergency Medical Services employees and the Newport News Police Department's employees and/or agents, include, at a minimum, negligence due to their failure to administer the appropriate and/or adequate medical care, and general negligence resulting in violating the captioned decedent's rights and contributing and/or causing to his subsequent death thereafter on October 25, 2023. These claims could include allegations for gross negligence, willful indifference, and punitive damages.

The Estate of Quandrell Williams has suffered a significant loss as a result of the wrongful, negligent and otherwise improper conduct of the Newport News Emergency Medical Services employees and/or agents and the Newport News Police Department's employees and/or agents. It is the specific intent of the Estate of Quandrell Williams to seek redress in the form of financial compensation for the wrongful death of Quandrell Williams.

Please govern yourself accordingly.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Edward A. Fiorella, Jr.", written in a cursive style.

Edward A. Fiorella, Jr.
